

Visiting research stay at the Barcelona School of Economics (BSE)

Our doctoral student Gianna Angermayr received a DocMobility grant from the University of Basel and the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF)! She will conduct a visiting research stay at the Institute of Economic Analysis of the Spanish Research Council (IAE-CSIC) at the Barcelona School of Economics (BSE) from September 2026. During her stay, she will engage in expert interviews and a stakeholder workshop to collect data for her modeling activities.
